Fine Supplies of Fish Almost Go Begging-Home Chicks More Plentiful.

Utah poultry is reaching the local market in larger quantities than for some time past, and the demand for Eastern stock is falling off accordingly. Plenty of halibut and all kinds of small fish was on hand yesterday, but the orders in an ticipation of fish day were comparatively light. The supply of salmon is now just about equal to the demand. Nothing new in green stuffs was reported by the mar kets yesterday, and there were no price chapges in produce.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE keeping and storing of explosives within the limits of Salt Lake county, and outside the limits of incorporated cities and towns therein.

The Board of County Commissioners of the county of Salt Lake ordains as follows:

The Board of County Commissioners of the county of Salt Lake ordains as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to erect or maintain in Salt Lake county any magazine for the storage of explosives, within three hundred feet of any road, highway, rallway used for passenger traffic, or building where people live or gather; or to construct such magazine of other than fireproof material, such as brick, adobe, rock, iron, steel, or by excavation into the side of a hill or mountain; or to fail to provide such magazine with double doors and shutters over any openings, such doors or shutters to be of non-combustible material.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or store in any enclosure, building, car, mine, or place of business, in Sait Lake county, any gunpowder, glant or hercules powder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, atlas, venture, or other high explosive, except in a magazine as described in section 1 of this ordinance, Provided, that a sample of gunpowder, glant or hercules powder, not to exceed ten pounds, may be kept in any licensed place of business where such explosives are sold, and the amount so kept shall be stored in canisters or original packages and placed in a vault of construction approved by the Sheriff of Sait Lake county, and located at an accessible point not nearer than ten feet to any other building; and provided, further, that any person may keep, in a canister or fiask, for his own use, not to exceed six and one-quarter pounds of gunpowder; and it shall be unlawful for any person to keep or store glant or hercules powder, or other high explosive, by gas, lamp, candle or fire light, unless in scaled cans or canisters.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or store glant or hercules powder caps, or caps used to explode giant or hercules powder, unless they be in cases, separate from any kind of explosive powder; if kept in a powder magazine, they shall be kept in a separate
